

New Home Builder Review – Rieck Construction

Rieck Construction is by far the best we have ever encountered in making dreams come true.

Michael embraced our vision and dream and made it his own.

The attention to detail combined with the very best craftsmen made the end result a home that was truly the realization of our dream.

Michael has a keen creative eye and is a wonderful communicator.

The experience of working with Michael is not only pleasurable but has culminated in a good friendship.

The partnership and Rieck Construction exceeding all expectations carries forward well after the completion of the home.

We cannot give Rieck Construction a higher recommendation.
